Dear Allen:

A friend of Mildred's wrote her the other day and in the course of her letter referred to a communication she had had from her son in Mexico. Enclosed is a quotation from her letter to Mildred which I think possibly might interest you. I have purposely omitted the name of the writer and of her son, but I can give you that information if you desire it.

Yours ever,

Robert Woods Bliss.

"_____ wrote me from Mexico not long ago that he had run into a student from the college in Mexico City. The boy told him that whenever the American element gets into trouble with the Mexican police - even an occasional jail detour - all they have to do for immediate relief is notify the Russian Embassy, not ours. I promptly telephoned the FBI in this town" (Glens Falls, N. Y.) "and feel sure they are taking care of it."
